First High-Level Seminar on International Administrative Tribunals

The "First High-Level Seminar on International Administrative Tribunals – An in depth discussion on Institutional and Jurisprudence issues" will take place from Thursday, September 14, 2017 to Friday September 15, 2017 at the European Public Law Organization (EPLO) premises of Sounion, Attica, Greece.

The discussions will be held under "Chatham House Rule" and participation will be limited to the judges and registry staff of the international administrative tribunals or equivalent bodies. To encourage participation of all tribunals, it is suggested that each tribunal be represented by one judge and one registry staff, on the understanding that the nature of some tribunals may require a wider participation.

Programme

The two day event will begin with the registration of participants on 14 September 2017 at 9:00 am. It is proposed that the two-day discussion cover institutional and jurisprudential issues"

A more detailed programme will follow.

Registration

Participation is limited to judges and registry staff. All participants need to pre-register as well as pay the registration fee of 110€ to the conference by the 30th of June. Register here
