MoU between EPLO and the United Nations on anti-corruption education

An MoU that foresees cooperation with regards to anti-corruption education was signed on Friday, February 26, 2016, in Vienna, between Prof. Flogaitis, Director of the EPLO and Mr. Yury Fedotov, Executive Director of the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime (UNODC).

On behalf of the EPLO, the Academy of Transparency and Human Rights will be the institution to further develop this cooperation in the field of anti-corruption through teaching courses, the exchange of knowledge, information and expertise as well as by pursuing the introduction of anti-corruption courses in higher educational institutions worldwide.
