

EPLO
European Public Law
Organization

4/10/2016

Call for Papers for the EUROPEAN POLITEIA journal

a) EUROPEAN POLITEIA journal announces its invitation for papers for the issue 2/2016 (4) on the theme "Market Democracy: Wedge into society? Further to the Greek case" which is scheduled to be published in December 2016.

Last date of submission: November 15, 2016.

b) EUROPEAN POLITEIA announces its invitation for papers for its issue of 1/2017 (5) on the theme "Migration, right or plight? Deeper into the Greek crisis" which is scheduled to be published in February 2017.

Last date of submission: December 15, 2016.

Specifications and more details on thematics can be found in the attached documents.

The Journal

European Politeia [ISSN 2409-5621 (print version)] is a bi-annual journal of European law, public affairs and society published by the European Public Law Organization under the scientific supervision of the Greek Center of European Studies and Research (EKEME) of the EPLO.

The aim of this publication is to provide an additional forum for the ongoing debates on a broad range of issues and particularly those that transcend individual countries. It will hopefully make relevant voices from the South of Europe more accessible to a broader audience. It will be a rewarding exercise to draw from the expertise of many scholars from Greece and other countries. The publication will be open to various theoretical and political perspectives that spring from different experiences and methodological traditions. We do not intend to narrow the frame of the debates.