6th Greek–Russian Roundtable Discussion

For the sixth consecutive year representatives of the Hellenic and the Russian Supreme Courts will meet at a round-table discussion on Wednesday, October 19, 2016 at the premise of the European Public Law Organization (EPLO) in Athens.

These meetings have been initiated by the EPLO with the aim to exchange experience between the two Supreme Courts. This time the topic is “Improving cooperation against illicit traffic of drugs, psychotropic substances and precursors”.

The representatives of the Russian Federation are: the Supreme Judges Alexei Yersov and Eldar Amberhayev while representing the Greek side will be: Grigorios Peponis, Konstantinos Tzavellas and Vassilios Gitakos. The discussion will be coordinated by Athanasios Katsirodis, Vice-attorney of the Hellenic Supreme Court.
