

5/04/2017

Event on E-Governance and its role in development

With an open to the public event, the newly established Institute for Local Governance and Policy Innovation of the European Public law Organization (EPLO) initiates its range of activities, on Wednesday 5 April at 6.30 p.m. at the conference hall of the international Organization in Plaka, the old district of Athens (Dioskouron St and Pikilis Square, opposite the entrance of the Roman Agora).

The event entitled "The importance of e-governance for local and regional development : conditions, challenges and opportunities" focuses on the progress of e-governance in Greece and the conditions under which this is connected to the local, regional and national development.

The Mayor of Athens Mr. Giorgos Kaminis, the Regional Governor of Central Greece Mr. Kostas Bakogiannis and the Director General of the Hellenic Federation of Enterprises (SEV) are participating as speakers.