

28/09/2017

Event on the mapping of the Greek Justice System

The EPLO's Institute for Justice and Growth is organized an event on the subject "The mapping of the Greek Justice system; European Experiences - Current Situation - Proposals for Reform" at the EPLO premises in Plaka, on Thursday 28.09.2017 at 18:00.

The event was co-ordinated by the General Commissioner of the Administrative Courts, Ms Eftichia Fountoulaki. The Working Group dedicated on the subject presented the findings of its research. The working group is headed by the Councilor of State and Assistant Professor at the Law School of the Aristotle University of Thessaloniki, Mr Michail Pikramenos, with the participation of:

1. Mr Alkiviadis Feresidis, Presiding Judge at the Athens Court of First Instance
2. Mr Lambros Tsogas, Public Prosecutor at the Thessaloniki Court of First Instance
3. Mr Spyridon Kapodistrias, Judge at the Athens Court of First Instance

Mr Vasilios Androulakis, Associate Judge at the Council of State, presented his "Views on the Reform of the Judicial Map in France".

After the presentation of the survey, the Professor of Constitutional Law at the Law School of the National and Kapodistrian University of Athens, Mr Georgios Gerapetritis, provided a critical review on the findings of the study which will be followed by an open discussion.

A welcome address was provided by the President of the Institute for Justice and Growth Mr Nicolas Kanellopoulos.

A number of jurists, academics, lawyers, officials and representatives of the country's legal order, etc. honored the event with their presence.