International conference in Hungary by the EPLO & the University of Szeged

The International and Regional Studies' Institute of the University of Szeged, Faculty of Law, Europe Direct Szeged and the European Public Law Organization (EPLO) have successfully organized an international conference titled "Democracy and law in European integration and in international relations" which took place in Szeged, Hungary, on 10-11 May 2018. The first day of the conference was dedicated to a plenary session with invited speakers, while for the second day a presentation of selected papers took place after a relative prior call.

A report based on the conference speeches may be published either in the EPLO Central and Eastern European Legal Studies (CEELS) or in the European Review of Public Law journal, based on the recommendation of an anonym peer-review required for in these journals. Further details of publication will be available for the selected speakers.
