

7/11/2018

Scientific Event on Michael Psellos

The Institute for Humanities & Culture "Nicos Svoronos" of the European Public Law Organization (EPLO) organized a scientific event titled:

"Michael Psellos: The Profile of a Renaissance Public Servant of the 11th Century: Today's Reality."

The event took place on November 7, 2018 at the EPLO's premises in the Roman Agora (Plaka) between 6:00 pm and 9:00 pm.

Program

Coordinator: Ms Kalliopi (Kelly) Bourdara: Professor, Law School of Athens, Director of the Institute for Humanities & Culture << Nicos Svoronos >>

Speakers

Vasilis-Alexandros Kollias, Lawyer, NN: "Michael Psellos's career as a public servant."

Triantafyllitsa Maniati-Kokkini, Assist. Professor, University of Athens: "Michael Psellos finances: A << Scandalous >> favor or the meaning or a simple policy of benefits?"

Maria Pelekidou-Nistazopoulou, Professor, University of Ioannina: "The Contribution of Women to the Economy. An important piece of information derived by Psellos"

Irene Christou, Alternate Professor, University of Athens: "Emperors of the Macedonian Dynasty as described by Psellos"

Intervention:

Dr. Panagiotis Karkatsoulis, Institute for Regulatory Policy Research: "The Psellos successors: instruments for the politicians or public policy makers?"

Certificates of attendance will be provided to the attendees.

RSVP: Confirm your presence until Monday 5 November, 2018 via email at afiumi@eplo.int