The EPLO is granted the Observer status at the United Nations

The General Assembly of the United Nations on November 1st, at its 31st plenary meeting of 2018 and under the agenda item 176, adopted resolution A/73/462 titled “Observer status for the European Public Law Organization in the General Assembly” which:

- «invites the European Public Law Organization (EPLO) to participate in the sessions and the work of the General Assembly in the capacity of observer; and
- requests the Secretary-General to take the action necessary to implement the present resolution».

This has been the outcome of a long process that was initiated by Portugal and was adopted unanimously by all member states.
