

EPLO
European Public Law
Organization

12/03/2019

3rd "European Legal Dialogues" in Cambridge

The 3rd Sir David Williams European Legal Dialogues takes place in Wolfson College co-organized and sponsored by Wolfson College, Public Law Centre of the Faculty of Law of the University of Cambridge, Universite Bordeaux-Montesquieu, Hart Publishing, and ELGS of the EPLO on March 12, 2019. This time, it covers the whole day and is followed by participation to the formal dinner of the College.

The theme is "Judicial review of Administrative Action".

The event is organized as a three hour discussion of Socratic-platonic character led and animated by the Right Honorable Lord Justice Patrick Elias, between two distinguished lawyers, one common lawyer and one continental European lawyer, with the participation of the public where a few distinguished personalities from continental Europe and Great Britain or overseas, shall be invited to participate actively as discussants.

Participants of 3rd Sir David Williams European Legal Dialogues

President

Right Honorable Lord Justice Patrick Elias

Keynote Speakers

Professor Alison Young

Professor Mario Chiti

Discussants

Professor Paul Craig

Professor Luis Maria Diez Picazo

Professor Ioannis Drossos

Professor Ymre Schuurmans

Professor Rui Linceiro

Directors

Professor David Feldman

Professor Spyridon Flogaitis

Scientific Secretariat

Professor Georgios Gerapetritis

For your participation in the 3rd European Legal Dialogues event titled "Judicial review of Administrative Action" please register at <https://legaldialogues.eplo.int/index.php/registration>

EPLO
European Public Law
Organization
