

EPLO
European Public Law
Organization

24/02/2020

ELGS participates at QS World Grad School Tour for Postgraduate and PhD studies

Athens, Thursday 19 March, 2020, Hotel Hilton Athens, Vasilissis Sofias 46, 14:30- 20:00

European Law and Governance School (ELGS), the International University School of the European Public Law Organization (EPLO) participates at the QS World Grad School Tour, an international university fair for postgraduate and PhD studies to be held on Thursday 19 March, 2020 at 14.30-20.00 at Hilton Hotel in Athens. Entrance to the exhibition is free of charge but registration is required here

Visitors of the fair will have the opportunity to meet face-to-face admissions directors from the world's best universities and be informed for all the available curriculums as well as the process of applying to them.

To view the full list of exhibitors, click here

Additional benefits of the fair:

- Free CV evaluation and a draw for a complete CV consulting package, offered by CVexperts
- Free Horizon orientation test to find the master's degree that suits you best, offered by Orientum
- Free counseling for improving your applications for postgraduate studies offered by Network Test Prep
- Free virtual interviews, an offer from Career in Progress