

29/01/2022

Breaking News: Members of the EPLO family appointed in important positions

Professor Sergio Mattarella, Honorary President of the European Law and Governance School of the EPLO, was re-elected President of the Italian Republic with an impressive score of votes.

Professor Giuliano Amato, Honorary President of the Board of Trustees of the European Law and Governance School (ELGS) of the EPLO was elected President of the Constitutional Court of the Italian Republic.

Professor Daria de Pretis, member of the European Group of Public Law (EGPL) was elected Vice-President of the Constitutional Court of the Italian Republic.