Final Conference of the Project ViW “Voices of Immigrant Women”

The final conference of the EU funded Erasmus+ project “Voices of Immigrant Women” (ViW), was held on Wednesday 14th of September 2022, 9:30-15:30 Friday, at EPLO premises in Plaka, Athens.

The final conference was aimed at presenting the results of the project, including the mapping of cases studies and success stories of integration of migrant women across the EU, the development of an E-learning program on “Human mobility, Integration and Gender” as well as the development of a set of practical policy recommendations for policy makers.

The conference brought together, besides the project partners, policy makers, teachers and students of higher education institutions as well as representatives of civil society organisations.
