International Conference on the National Constitutional Heritage and European Integration

The Brussels Office of the Foundation for a Civic Hungary together with Károli Gáspár University of the Reformed Church in Hungary and the European Public Law Organization organized an international conference titled:

National constitutional heritage and European integration: FROM THE ARANYBULLA (HUNGARIAN MAGNA CARTA, 1222) TO THE EUROPEAN VALUES

discussing the significance of national constitutions and heritage in the European integration. On the occasion of the 800th anniversary of Hungary's emblematic regulation, Professors of law and Members of the European Parliament from all over Europe were invited to exchange views on the relevance of national constitutions, traditions, and values for the future of Europe.
