Online kick-off meeting of the Erasmus+ BRIDGE project

The European Public Law Organization (EPLO) as a partner in the EU funded ERASMUS+ BRIDGE project (2025-1-ES01-KA220-HED-000359236), successfully participated to the project's online kick-off meeting. The meeting brought together partners and HEIs from Spain - Universidad Pablo de Olavide (project coordinator), Italy - University of Siena and Pixel, Poland - Uniwersytet Jagiellonski, Germany - University of Bayreuth, Portugal - Instituto Politecnico de Bragança and Greece - European Public Law Organization with an aim to set a solid basis for projects activities implementation and methodological approach, ensuring a shared understanding as we begin moving forward.

During the meeting, participants aligned on:

- The project's overall goals and expected outcomes
- Responsibilities and contributions of each team member
- Major milestones and the implementation schedule
- Communication and coordination processes

With this foundation in place, the project now transitions into its implementation phase with a duration of 3 years. The aim of the project is to promote intercultural dialogue based on European values in the Higher Education sector through raising awareness on the main social challenges, providing innovative and specialized university education via micro-credential training sources and supporting inclusive University Governance.
