

5/09/2012

The EPLO Welcomes the University of Montreal in its Board of Directors

The University of Montreal has become the 58th institutional member of the EPLO. The University of Montreal is the first Canadian institution to join the EPLO Board of Directors. Guy Lefebvre, Dean of Law, has been appointed as the University's representative in the EPLO Board of Directors, and Jean-François Gaudreault-DesBiens, Associate Dean for research and the titular of the Canada Research Chair in North American and Comparative Legal and Cultural Identities, as the alternate representative.