

EPLO
European Public Law
Organization

31/03/2015

Administrative Court, Ombudsman, Board of Auditors, Executive Committee

The EPLO governance also includes an Administrative Court, composed of a President and two members, as well as an Ombudsman established to resolve grievances, a Board of Auditors established to observe the efficiency of the financial procedures and the accounting system and to perform the overall audit of the accounts of the EPLO. Finally, an Executive Committee, composed of four members residing in Greece, and the EPLO Director as the President of the Committee, is set up to take decisions and approve acts of daily management of the EPLO.