Expert Group Meeting on “Integrity and Ethics”

An Expert Group Meeting on “Integrity and Ethics” was hosted by the EPLO in its premises in Sounion on 29 and 30 November 2017. The meeting was organized by the UNODC as part of the Education for Justice (E4J) initiative and brought together academic experts from various parts of the world to review and validate university modules on integrity and ethics as well as related interactive tools and resources.

The validated modules and the supporting material will be used by academics in university courses for both undergraduate and graduate students in the area of Integrity and Ethics.

The Director of the Academy for Transparency & Human Rights, Dr. Ioannis Karkalis, who actively participated in the meeting wishes to express his warm thanks to all the participants for a very successful and fruitful meeting as well as to the Chief of the Corruption and Economic Crime Branch, Mr. Dimitri Vlassis and his colleagues for their personal input and continuous efforts towards the common goals, within the framework of the signed Memorandum of Understanding between the EPLO and the UNODC.
