Υπογραφή Διακήρυξης σχετικά με ένα Παγκόσμιο Σύμφωνο για ασφαλή, τακτική και οργανωμένη μετανάστευση

A declaration entitled “Mobility and human solidarity, a challenge and an opportunity for Europe and the MENA region” has been adopted on December 18, 2017 on the occasion of the 2017 International Migrants Day.

This declaration was debated during the concluding session of the Geneva Centre for Human Rights Advancement and Global Dialogue’s (hereinafter “The Geneva Centre”) panel debate held on 14 December 2017 at the United Nations Office in Geneva on the theme of “Migration and human solidarity, a challenge and an opportunity for Europe and the MENA region.” The conference included renowned spokespersons from IOM, UNHCR, the Norwegian Refugee Council, the International Catholic Migration Commission, the Sovereign Order of Malta, the European Centre for Peace and Development and the Geneva Centre.

The objective of this declaration is to highlight that States and decision-makers in the Arab region and the West are morally and legally bound to enhance human mobility. It behoves them to respond with a unified voice to the tragedy of those millions of people on the move in the Middle East and North Africa region.

It also calls upon all States to contribute to the realization of the Global Compact on Safe, Regular and Orderly Migration and the Global Compact on Refugees. The declaration notes inter alia that all member States of the United Nations must contribute to the realization of a common framework to respond to the plight of migrants and refugees.
